

Monday, June 28th

Mello Jello Day

Schedule: Special Activity

Purpose: To explore all that jello and pudding have to offer! ☺

What to wear: Clothes that can get messy

What to expect: There are going to be lots of different jello activities as we celebrate one of Camp's favorite desserts! Counselors will race with pants full of Jello; Campers can participate in Jello contest during opening

Tuesday, June 29th

Nifty Neato Nerdy Day

Schedule: Crazy Time

Purpose: Honoring our very own "nerd" Queen Nerd, we will dress and act as nerdy as possible.

What to wear: The "nerdiest" clothes and accessories imaginable

What to expect: Crazy costumes, pocket protectors, suspenders and smiles.

Wednesday, June 30th

Big Brother, Big Sister Day

Schedule: Crazy Time

Purpose: We all have those big bothers and big sisters in our lives that guide us, and hold over our heads that they were born first and know more.

What to wear: Clothes

What to expect: A lot of fun!

Thursday, July 1st

Tie Dye Day; Festival of Colors

Schedule: Special Activity

Purpose: Odyssey's 20th anniversary summer is packed with tie-dye! This is such a fun art that everyone needs to make their own at least once a year.

What to wear: Please wear old clothes that could become stained because of accidental exposure to tie-dye.

What to bring: Something that you would like tie-dyed. White clothes work best.

What to expect: Campers will be able to make their own tie-dyed stuff with the guidance and expertise of Camp Odyssey's staff.

Friday, July 2nd

Pre-Independence Day Parade

Schedule: Festival

What to wear: Red, White and Blue

What to bring: Campers should bring their bikes, skateboards, or rollerblades for the big parade!

What to expect: A huge Independence Day celebration with all of the campers participating in a big parade! Parents are welcome to watch our own parade happening at 1:00pm