

Week 4 – Our “international” week!

Monday July 12, 2010

Pensez Français (pahn-say Fran-say) French Party

Schedule: Crazy Time

What to wear: French berets, French clothes and colors (Red, White and Blue).

What to expect: This is a dress up day with a French themed crazy time and opening.

Tuesday July 13, 2010

¡Siempre Una Fiesta!

Schedule: Special Activity

What to wear: Campers may wear anything Latin; from Spanish sombreros and Flamenca dresses to Mexican Ponchos and zarapes (serapes)!

What to expect: Piñatas, festive foods, and lots of fun!

Wednesday July 14, 2010

Roman Toga Jam

Schedule: Special Activity

What to wear: Togas over top of clothes and a laurel wreath upon the head, Roman senator style! ☺

What to expect: Campers may participate in “chariot races” and “gladiator battles” or give speeches at the Roman forum.

Thursday July 15, 2010

Reggae Day

Schedule: Crazy Time

What to wear: Rasta colors (black, red, yellow and green), dreadlock wigs and a big island smile. ☺

What to expect: A celebration of the culture and influence of Reggae music; lots of Bob Marley!

Friday July 16, 2010

Australian Beach & Pool Day

Schedule: Modified – off campus trips

What to wear: Swimsuit, sun block, goggles if needed, please bring a towel and a change of clothes.

What to expect: Setting Sail will travel to the pool, while the rest of camp travels to Jolly Roger.